Advisors Capital Management, LLC Acquires Capital Advisors Wealth Management: Part of ACM's Continued Plan to Build Wealth Management Services.

April 1, 2010 (Hasbrouck Heights, NJ) –Advisors Capital Management's (ACM), a nationally recognized separate account firm, has acquired Capital Advisors Wealth Management, LLC (Capital Advisors) of Clifton Park, New York. With ACM having provided portfolio management services to Capital Advisors for nearly a decade, this acquisition was seamless and provides both organizations with additional financial services and expertise for their clients.

ACM Co-Founder Dr. Charles Lieberman, "Capital Advisors founder Stan McDannold has built a wonderful practice with a deep understanding of small business and executive benefits, as well as insurance solutions for his clients. We (ACM) have been publicly looking for independent investment advisors like Capital Advisors, who want to grow their businesses and want to be a part of a larger organization such as ACM, which can provide a deeper bench of portfolio management and marketing skills". ACM has both a direct wealth management and a wholesale business providing separate account portfolios to major broker dealers across the country.

Stan McDannold will retain his office in Clifton Park, New York and will take on ACM's name along with the firm's umbrella of services.

Advisors Capital Management LLC is a provider of privately managed investment accounts located in Hasbrouck Heights, NJ. ACM provides investment management services to individual investors, institutions and financial professionals. ACM is a registered investment advisor.
